corporation, either by their own vote or at the re- General meetquest in writing of stockholders holding not less than one thousand shares, by giving three days notice of such intended meeting in any of the daily papers published in the city of Baltimore, and in case of the refusal of said Board to call such general meeting at the request aforesaid, then it is made hereby competent for the said stockholders holding not less than one thousand shares, to call such general meeting in the manner above specified.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That no stockholder or other member of this corporation shall be answer- Not individuable in his person or individual property for any ble. contracts or agreements of said corporation, or for any losses, discrepancies or failure of the capital stock of this corporation, but the whole of the capital stock, together with all property, rights and credits belonging thereto, and nothing more shall at any time be answerable for the demand against said corporation.

ally responsi-

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the Directors may delegate any of the powers herein conferred to an executive committee; nothing herein contained shall be construed as to confer privileges on said committee. corporation to issue any note, token, device, scrip, or other evidence of debt to be used as currency.

Executive

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That should it so happen from any cause an election for Directors shall not be made on the day appointed in this charter, it shall be lawful to hold an election on Hold over. such day as may be fixed by the Directors, they causing six days notice to be given thereof in a daily newspaper of said Baltimore City.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the charter of this corporation be and the same is hereby made petual. perpetual, the General Assembly reserving to itself the right to at any time amend the same.

Charter per-

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 4, 1870.